

Adil Raja

Adil Raja

Permanent Representative-IHRF | Geopolitical Analyst

International Human Rights Foundation-IHRF · Quaid-e-Azam University, Islamabad
United Kingdom

1K followers · 500+ connections

Join to connect

About

War Wounded Veteran of Pakistan with more than 19 years of diverse experience in field security duties, political/security analysis and consultancy on critical issues regards conflict management, political administration along-with intelligence based anti-terrorist operations and DE-radicalization drives. Extensive experience in administration of handling vast variety of human resource. Tacit understanding of International Relations with special focus on Middle East/Central Asia and issues relating to Global strategies in these regions. Rich on job experience in analyzing and dealing with political and security issues in Pakistan in general and Afghanistan-Pakistan Tribal border belt in particular. Played pivotal role in coordination between Pakistani Security Forces and ISAF/US forces on the security/political issues of mutual interests concerning Afghanistan-Pakistan borders. Holds extensive International traveling and communication experience. Owner of various online pages/websites related to current affairs and international relations. Also write a personal blog. (whatholdsthefuture.blogspot.com). International publication credits (e.g, BBC). Student of International relations with a Masters degree. Holds extensive experience in the social media management. Specialist (brand management) of Govt/Non Govt Organisations. Tweets @soldierspeaks .

As an entrepreneur established a successful commercial land acquisition company which deals with mega real estate organizations like DHA and Bahria Town beside other clients.

As a geopolitical analyst & columnist; gives regular commentary on regional affairs in print/electronic media.

Personally struggled for standing up for the freedom of speech and constitutional supremacy in Pakistan. Working to raise international awareness about human rights and struggle for real democracy in Pakistan.

Specialties: Government Liaison. Social Media Management. Political/Security Analyst/Consultant. International/Regional Relations Expert. Administration of Executive Office and Human Resource Management. Excellent Entrepreneurial Skills. Recruitment and Training Specialist. Conflict Management. International Border Management Specialist. Risk Management. Excellent Communication Skills